

Sports as a Crime Reduction and Mitigation Activity

The Peace and Love Programme initiated by Honorable Richard Frederick, Parliamentary Representative for Castries Central moved to a new level during the month of March, with the introduction of a basketball component of the programme. Given the youth and sports development focus of Super J Supermarkets, the company agreed to be the overall sponsor of the first basketball competition of this project.

Given the youth and sports development focus of Super J Supermarkets, the company agreed to be the overall sponsor of the first basketball competition of this project. Martin Dorville, Business Development and Marketing Director of Consolidated Foods Ltd. (operators of Super J Supermarkets) attended the match, which was played at the newly established New Village Basketball court. In his words “Peace and Love Basketball is critical to the continuity of the crime mitigation/reduction efforts of government and so CFL is pleased to be part of such a crucial initiative”.

Despite a tie at the end of the first half of the match, at the final whistle Wilton’s Yard beat New Village thirty six (36) to thirty four (34). The match between New Village and Wilton’s Yard area was well attended by members of both communities.

Martin Dorville of CFL and Linwall James of CAPS with the New Village team before the start of the match

Martin Dorville of CFL and Linwall James of CAPS with the Wilton's yard team before the start of the match