

Senior Games Cheque Presentation

In presenting the cheque Martin Dorville, Business Development and Marketing Director of the CFL noted that as title sponsor of the event since 2005 Super J's is committed to partnering with HelpAge in its quest to provide quality, competitive, athletic experiences for older adults, and significantly, to articulate the importance of such a lifestyle as a response to ageing. In addition to its cash sponsorship, Super J's also presented HelpAge with food vouchers, for use by the thirteen teams participating in the games towards their meals at the games on Monday.

The cheque presentation was attended by HelpAge officials, team captains and the Managers of the two Super J stores in Vieux Fort. Consolidated Foods Limited remains committed to working with HelpAge to undertake meaningful projects that are vital to improving the quality of life for seniors, by supporting projects that foster independence, dignity and purpose.

Public Relations Manager Sariah Best-Joseph congratulates winners of the Shot Put event at Senior Games 2008